- 4.3. Bank card shall be issued within 3 (three) working days following the date of opening of the card account;
- 4.4. If the Bank's tariffs include a fee for a specific type of Card for annual/monthly maintenance, the first period's fee is charged on the Card issuance day, and for subsequent periods, this fee is charged on the first day of the next period until the card's expiration date;
- 4.5. Client has the right to apply to the Bank for an Additional Card, provided that this service is available on the day of the Application submission. The cost of this service is determined according to the Bank's tariffs;
- 4.6. An Additional Bank Card, except for a virtual card, may be issued in the name of any Client Representative over 14 (fourteen) years old, provided that they present the original identity document and other documents required by applicable legislation;
- 4.7. An Additional Bank Card can be issued at any time of validity of the Main Bank Card. The validity period of the Additional Bank Card may exceed the validity period of the Main Bank Card. Additional card must be closed on the day when the Client submits an application to close the card account;
- 4.8. All transactions performed by the Representative using the Additional Bank Card shall be treated as transactions performed using the Primary Bank Card and shall be governed by this Agreement;
- 4.9. The issuance of the Bank Card to the Client shall be carried out only upon the Client presenting the original identity document and/or other documents required by applicable law;
- 4.10. The reissuance of the Bank Card upon expiration, loss, damage, or at the Client's request shall be carried out based on the Client's written application submitted to the Bank or through remote servicing channels. The Bank's commission for card reissuance shall be charged in accordance with the Bank's current tariffs as of the date of card reissuance;
- 4.11. The terms of the standard Agreement in effect at the time of reissuance shall apply to Cards reissued in accordance with clause 4.10 of this Agreement;
- 4.12. In the event of early termination of the Agreement, the commissions received by the Bank for the issuance and servicing of the Bank Card shall not be refunded, and the CSC and the Bank Card shall be closed. The remaining funds on the Bank Cards shall be returned to the Client in cash through the Bank's cash desk or by non-cash transfer to the Client's bank accounts based on a written Application for non-cash transfer of funds, after deducting commissions and/or any other debts owed by the Client to the Bank. The basis for early termination of the Agreement shall be the existence of a corresponding Application from the Client or the presence of conditions specified in clauses 6.1.3, 6.1.9, and 6.1.10 of this Agreement.
- 4.13. The remaining balance of the insurance deposit on the Card Account shall be issued to the Client 30 (thirty) days after the date of the Client's application for card closure.
- 4.14. The total number of bank cards issued by the Bank in the name of one client, including virtual cards and cobaging cards, shall not exceed five (5). The requirements of this clause shall not apply to bank cards opened in foreign currencies.

5. Bank tariffs and mutual settlements of the Client with the Bank

5.1. For the services provided by the Bank under this Agreement, the Client undertakes to pay the Bank a commission fee (commission) and other payments in accordance with the Bank's tariffs in effect on the date of the transaction;

5.2. The Bank does not accrue interest on the balance of funds held in the Card Account, unless otherwise provided by the Bank's tariffs.

5.3. Payment of commissions is made in the manner established in clause 5.6 of the Agreement.

5.4. The applicable tariffs are provided by the Bank to the Client prior to the Client's acceptance of the Agreement. By agreeing to the Agreement, the Client confirms that they have reviewed the tariffs and agree to their amount, procedure for modification, and application;

5.5. The Bank reserves the right to unilaterally amend the Bank's tariffs;

5.6. The Bank debits the amounts of Card transactions, Bank commissions, as well as funds erroneously credited to the Card Account or Card/erroneously not debited from the Card or Card Account, and any debts, including the Client's debts under other obligations to the Bank, by directly debiting the Card Account. In the absence of or insufficient funds in the Card Account, the Bank may debit:

- directly from any of the Client's bank accounts opened with the Bank;
- from Bank cards issued by other banks
- The Client grants the Bank the right to debit funds without prior consent (acceptance) of the Client in the cases and manner specified in this clause of the Agreement.

In the event of amendments or additions to the tariffs or this Agreement, the Bank shall notify the Client no later than 10 (ten) calendar days before the effective date of such amendments or additions, without concluding an additional agreement to this Agreement, by any of the following methods:

- by posting the amendments and/or additions to the tariffs and the Agreement on information boards in the Bank's offices;
- by posting the amendments and/or additions to the tariffs and the Agreement on the Bank's website at: www.kdb.uz;
- by any other method at the Bank's discretion.

In the event of changes to the Bank's tariffs that reduce the amount of commission fees (creating favorable conditions for the Client), the Bank may unilaterally apply such changes no later than the day following the effective date of the changes to the Bank's tariffs.

5.7. Funds are transferred to the Bank card account in the currency of the account. Transfer of funds to the Bank card account is carried out by cashless transfer from accounts in the bank (in other banks), as well as cash through the bank cash register or through automated service points in accordance with the current legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan and Bank tariffs;

5.8. Funds are credited to the CSC in the currency of the CSC. Funds may be credited to the CSC by non-cash transfer from accounts with the Bank (or other banks), as well as by cash deposit through the Bank's cash desk or Automated Service Points in accordance with the current legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan and the Bank's tariffs;

5.9. Cash withdrawals from the Client's Bank Card through the Bank's cash desk or ATMs are carried out within the daily limit set by the Bank, with a commission deducted in accordance with the approved Bank tariffs;

5.10. If the performed Card transaction is not recognized by the Client, the Client has the right to inform the Bank about this within 40 (forty) calendar days from the date of the transaction with the card, attaching documents related to the transaction.

Based on the client's application, the Bank investigates the situation within the terms provided for in the payment system and may start the dispute/chargeback process on behalf of the client, if provided for in the rules of the payment system. Acceptance of the rejection application from the client does not mean the Bank's obligation to return the funds to the client. All costs for the implementation of Chargeback/Dispute actions on the transaction specified in the Client's application will be charged to the Client's account in accordance with the Bank's tariffs in force at that time.

The Bank does not take responsibility for the outcome of the Dispute/Chargeback, does not undertake and does not guarantee the successful resolution of the Dispute/Chargeback and the return of money to the Client.

If the Dispute/Chargeback of the performed Card operation is successfully completed, the Bank will transfer the funds returned by the Beneficiary to the relevant Card account within the terms specified in the requirements of the payment system.

5.11. When performing a transaction on a bank card in a currency different from the currency of the card account, conversion and subsequent settlements with the client are carried out in accordance with the current rates of the bank;

5.12. In the cases stipulated by the current legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan, it is allowed to replenish the Client's Bank card account by third parties.

Rules for Using the Card

1. These Rules are provided to the Client for review and application. When using the Card, the Client must comply with the terms and requirements set forth below.
2. The transfer of the Card to third parties for use or as collateral is prohibited. A Card presented by an unauthorized person is subject to confiscation.
3. The Card must not be exposed to adverse factors, including:
 - Electromagnetic fields (proximity to displays, magnetized objects, or items containing magnets, such as keys or magnetic locks on bags).
 - Mechanical damage (scratches, contamination, overheating, e.g., from direct sunlight) that may impair the magnetic strip and prevent automated transactions.
 - Excessive force when handling the Card is not recommended.
4. The Bank is not responsible for any consequences arising from the Client disclosing:
 - A one-time password sent to their mobile phone or email.
 - The external card number, card expiration date, CVV code, and/or PIN code.
5. When using an ATM, the Client should remember that if the returned Card or dispensed cash is not retrieved within a specified time, a security system will activate, and to ensure the Client's funds are protected, the Card and/or cash may be retracted into the ATM's secure compartment. In such cases, the Client must contact the Bank that owns the ATM, present identification, and request the return of the Card.
6. The Bank has the right to distribute details of a blocked Card across the card service network to prevent unauthorized use.
7. A Card may be retained at a service point if:
 - The Card is blocked.
 - The person presenting the Card is not the Client.
 - The Client forgets the Card at a service point after completing a card transaction.
8. In the event of a Card being retained, the Client must contact the Bank and the relevant local bank either verbally (by phone) or in writing.
9. A retained Card is returned by the local bank or the card service point directly to the Client.
10. The Card displays its expiration month and year. The Card remains valid until the last day of the specified month and year. Expired Cards are automatically deactivated.
11. An additional Card statement is provided on a paid basis in accordance with the applicable Tariffs within 10 (ten) Banking days from the date the Client submits a request to the Bank.
12. If the Client grants a third party the right to manage the Card account, a power of attorney must be issued in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Uzbekistan. The power of attorney must clearly specify the authorized representative's powers.
